Traffic: -3.5% in July

Traffic at Toulouse-Blagnac airport decreased by 3.5% in July, with a total of 851,490 passengers recorded. Domestic traffic decreased by 2.3%, and international traffic decreased by 3.3%. The low-cost segment represented 38.5% of local traffic with 327,061 passengers.

PASSENGERS

Domestic traffic: 369,502 passengers (-2.3%). The decrease in traffic at Paris-Orly (-6.9%; 157,434 passengers) due to a decline in business traffic was offset by a significant increase in traffic at Paris-CDG (+12.8%; 87,530 passengers). An overall decline in regional traffic (-5.2%; 124,538 passengers) conceals major disparities between the regions, with significant increases for Nice (+36.9%; 6,973 passengers), Marseille (+28.7%; 4,197 passengers) and Lyon (+4.1%).

International traffic: 480,289 passengers (-3.3%). The Schengen area accounts for 65.3% of this traffic, with 313,459 passengers recorded (-1.6%). Brussels leads in this area this month with an increase of 3.7% and 29,041 passengers split between Brussels and Charleroi airports. There has been a significant increase in traffic to a number of holiday destinations such as Alicante (+322.2%; 4,898 passengers), Catania (+139%; 4,550 passengers) and Mahon (+70.9%; 4,700 passengers).

Outside the Schengen area (-8.2%; 103,733 passengers) and in an unfavourable context due to ongoing Brexit negotiations, traffic in London is down -7.9% with 71,966 passengers among the city’s 4 airports: Heathrow (+7.2%; 25,886 passengers), Gatwick (-28%; 21,663 passengers), Stansted (+6.6%; 20,076 passengers), and Luton (-15.4%; 4,341 passengers).

There is very little change in terms of traffic in North Africa (-0.7%) with mixed results for Tunisia (+7.8%; 11,101 passengers), Algeria (+2%; 17,389 passengers) and Morocco (-7.6%; 18,111 passengers).

Charter traffic accounts for 1.2% of the international total, with 5,899 passengers.

FREIGHT AND POSTAL TRAFFIC

Freight and postal traffic is down (-0.6%) with 5,218 tonnes handled.

COMMERCIAL AIRCRAFT MOVEMENTS

The number of commercial movements is down (-2.6%), with 7,397 movements carried out. The average number of passengers per plane is identical to the July 2018 figure of 125 passengers.
